HENRY ANSON, Our Founder

Henry Anson founded Marshalltown, Iowa in 1851. He was quoted to say, "I've found the prettiest place in Iowa, and here I'll live and lay my bones." The town was first named Marshall. In 1862, it was changed to the name of Marshalltown. Henry Anson and countless others spent their lives and fortunes to make Marshalltown the best place in Iowa to live. This city has a proud tradition of philanthropy, entrepreneurship, civic pride, and collaboration.

RECREATION

WHAT TO DO? WHAT TO DO? LOTS!

Looking for an afternoon adventure or a night out on the town? The Marshalltown area is brimming with possibilities of things to do and see. Enjoy miles of recreational trails, explore prairies and wetlands, climb a 30-foot tower, view a Post War Impressionist art collection, experience the all-Iowan Actors exhibit, walk through museums and a one-room school house, take self-guided tours and so much more!

Chock-full of art and cultural offerings, the Marshalltown area is the proud home of sculpture (including Christian Petersen's final piece, "Dedication to the Future"), theater (boasting three auditoriums and Live On Stage Marshalltown which brings a season series to the community), and art (both indoor and outdoor exhibits, including impressive public art scattered throughout the town).

Recreational opportunities abound with the Marshalltown YMCA-YWCA's state-of-the-art athletic complex, pickleball and futsal courts, disc golf, miles and miles of recreational trails, stock car racing, bowling, tennis, camping, numerous wildlife and recreation/conservation areas, parks (including a dog park, skate park, nature playscape, and children's discovery garden complete with gravity rail zip-line), aquatic center, softball and Little League diamonds, fishing, traditional golf, and more.
